MC VEY APPOINTMENT COMPLETES LOYOLA FOOTBALL STAFF

The Department of Physical Education and Athletics announced today the appointment of Vaughan McVey as assistant football coach. McVey joins head coach Doug Daigneault as a defensive line and linebacker instructor.

McVey Brings 20 years of playing and coaching experience to his new position. He was captain of the McGill Redmen from 1954 to 1957, and was an assistant coach at McGill when that school won the national title in 1960. In 1965 he helped coach N.D.G. Maple Leafs to a Canadian championship. Last season as head coach of Côte St. Luc Astros he guided his team to provincial laurels.

With the naming of McVey, the football staff for the coming season is now complete. Returning from last year are Tony Pajaczowski, offensive line, and Peter Regimbald, deep secondary. Newcomer John Rose will concentrate on defense. Of note is the fact that three of the assistant coaches are former successful head coaches: McVey with Côte St. Luc, Regimbald with West Island Royals, and Rose with Pointe Claire Beavers.

Daigneault stated that the addition of McVey will permit the coaches to work in units and accelerate the development of every squad member.

Loyola Athletic Director Ed Enos commented, "We are extremely pleased with the calibre of the staff we have assembled. To complement the three former head coaches, Daigneault and Pajaczowski between them combine a total of 19 seasons of professional ball, making for an ideal set-up."
